Town and parish councils combine to object to plans

Proposed Harepath Road development would 'alter the character of the landscape' say councillors

Letters to Santa

■ CHILDREN at Rupert's Playgroup in Seaton had a surprise when Seaton's resident postman arrived to pick up their letters for Santa Claus.

Postman Sid Hawes arrived at the under fives playgroup and was surrounded by excited youngsters who watched him open up the magical letterbox to collect their Christmas lists ready for Father Christmas.

Mr Hawes explained to the youngsters that the letters would now be passed on to the special post elf who will deliver the letters to Santa Claus ready for Christmas day.

SEATON Town Council has submitted a seven-page long objection to a massive development proposed for land east of Harepath Road.

As previously reported, Seaton Park Devon Ltd wishes to provide a mixed use development of approximately 170 homes, offices, workshops and two football pitches.

The developer submitted an outline planning application last month to East Devon District Council's (EDDC) planning department.

In a letter, dated December 13th, to the planning department, the town council presents a wide list of arguments against the proposal.

The list of arguments is, among other things, based on feedback from a public meeting organised by the town council, which attracted about 70 people. The meeting was called because the town council felt that the development would have a "major impact" on the town if allowed.

One concern is the impact the development would have on the green wedge between Seaton and Colyford.

The town council's letter of objection said: "Seaton Town Council, Colyton Town Council and the mayor and burgesses of Colyford are opposed to any coalescence of our unique communities.

Another passage of the letter said: "It is the town council's strong contention that this development will severely alter the character of the landscape of the area.

"The development will totally transform one of the main access routes into the town from showing the wide-open, green spaces of the Axe Valley, to showing an area that is built-up from the A3052 inwards. "This will have a significant effect on the local environment and perception of that environment.

By Anders Larsson
anders@tindlenews.co.uk

"It will have a deleterious effect on tourism as it will deter passing motorists and cyclists from visiting the town.

"It will make achievement of Strategy 33 – Promotion of Tourism, more difficult in relation to Seaton, which is a regeneration town."

● The town council's role was to recommend either approval or refusal before the application is decided by EDDC's development management committee on a date to be announced.

An outline planning application is submitted to establish if the type of development is suitable for the area/site in question. If the outline planning application is approved, a full application must be provided and approved before construction can begin.

Tigers go top

A 1-0 WIN at lowly Alphington was enough to take Axminster Town to the top of the South-West Peninsula League Division One (East) for the first time ever.

At the other end of the table there was good news from Sidmouth Town who ended a five-game losing trot with a 1-1 draw at home against the Exeter University students.

The Vikings do however remain seven points adrift at the foot of the table.

Axminster entertain Budleigh Salterton, who were surprisingly thrashed 5-1 at home by Appledore, in a top versus second clash at Sector Lane on Saturday. Meanwhile Sidmouth head off to face fellow strugglers Plymstock United.

Over in the Perry Street League Premier Division Millwey Rise recovered from the loss of veteran goalkeeper Nick Tregale after just four minutes to earn an impressive point after a 2-2 draw at title-chasing Winsham United.

Quotes of the week...

“WHILST it is certainly embarrassing that our figures have again been subject to an error, the latest delay demonstrates the council's willingness to listen to those who are scrutinising our processes from outside, and the robustness of our Planning Service in insisting that the reports are completely accurate before taking them forward for determination'
East Devon District Council's deputy chief executive Richard Cohen on further problems with collating correct data for the council's possible move from Sidmouth to Honiton.

EAST DEVON

District get it wrong again on new office data

A FURTHER inconsistency in the employment statistics relating to the potential move of East Devon District Council from the Knowle headquarters in Sidmouth to a purpose built base in Honiton has been found.

This follows a query from a local person who questioned the reliability of the data.

The figure quoted in an Economic Impact Assessment report for the number of current employees of the council who live in Honiton was calculated using different parameters.

This skewed the number of potential job losses downwards by a small margin. This appears to have happened because the raw data for Sidmouth was based on Local Plan boundaries and the Honiton data on postcode areas, which did not map exactly onto the Local Plan boundary areas.

The figure quoted for Honiton employees was 32, whereas the comparative number using the same parameters as for Sidmouth is in fact 21.

The report is currently being amended and the further delay in producing the report is being used as an opportunity to double check the accuracy of all other data and assumptions made in the consultants' report.

There will now be a further postponement of consideration of this outline planning application by the development management committee, which had already been moved from December 4th to January 8th.

There will also be a new two-week consultation period on the revised Economic Impact report.

It is now proposed to hold a special meeting of the development management committee probably in early February, at which the Knowle proposals will be the sole matter for discussion.

The date of this meeting has not yet been set, but all interested parties will be notified of the new meeting in good time.

Commenting on the latest delay, EDDC Deputy Chief Executive Richard Cohen said: "Whilst it is certainly embarrassing that our figures have again been subject to an error, the latest delay demonstrates the council's willingness to listen to those who are scrutinising our processes from outside, and the robustness of our Planning Service in insisting that the reports are completely accurate before taking them forward for determination".

From the editor's chair Spare a thought for others

I CAN never really get into the Christmas spirit until our last issue before the real celebrations begin is out on the streets.

It seems that all of my working life deadlines have had a serious impact on my ability to enjoy the run-up to the big day - and there have been countless occasions when I have had to work on Christmas Day as well.

The most memorable of these was when there was a serious fire at a bakery in Charmouth where most of the village turkeys were being cooked. That made the lead story on BBC Radio and TV.

Our next edition will carry the deadline December 25th - so that means it has to be produced before Christmas Day, printed on Christmas Eve and delivered on December 27th.

So this is the final opportunity I have to wish all our readers, contacts and advertisers the very best for the festive season and to hope that 2013 will see our communities survive and prosper, despite the current financial woes.

Our first issue of the New Year, by the way, will be delivered to our distribution points on January 2nd.

We have many reasons to count our blessings living in this part of the world and whilst you celebrate with your families this special Christmas holiday I am sure you will spare a thought for those affected by the tragic slaying of young children in America.

How long is America going to allow its children to be slaughtered before getting to grips with their gun laws?

Words alone cannot express the agony and despair that their parents are suffering as the rest of us prepare for this festive season.

But as pointed out in this column last week, there are also many living in and around us who are in distressed circumstances and have had to call on the services of the food banks that have emerged in recent weeks in all of the main towns in East Devon (the latest one opened in Sidmouth this week).

My views on this subject last week prompted many comments with a number of readers pointing out that we should not forget also that there are many older people in our area who are on their own this Christmas Day.

COLYTON

Dog ban for all playing fields

DOGS will be banned from three recreational areas in Colyton, parish councillors have decided.

Colyton Parish Council has agreed to enforce its own dog bans in the Peace Memorial Playing Fields, the play park at Road Green and the Hillhead picnic site.

Although there are "no dogs allowed" signs at these areas, no restrictions have previously been enforced as Colyton was missed out of East Devon District Council's general ban in all recreation areas. Parish clerk Liz Berry said this happened "sometime before she was clerk" and recently chased up the issues to see if Colyton could be added to the general ban.

A reply from environmental health officer Jill Whelton said the proposed changes to include Colyton were pulled before they reached committee at district level but suggested that Colyton Parish Council could enforce its own control order and issue fixed penalty notices.

Councillors discussed this option at last week's meeting.

The clerk reported that Seaton Town Council had recently made their own control order and said it was very simple. Councillors would have to fill in a form, inform the environmental officer and the local press. The dog warden would then be able to issue penalties but there is only one warden for the whole of East Devon.

AXMINSTER

Hospital fears

THE NUMBER of operations carried out at Axminster Community Hospital could be reduced dramatically if the fears of local doctors are founded.

Health bosses say negotiations are ongoing but local GPs have already issued a statement in which they "deplore the withdrawal of services".

The hospital is managed by Northern Devon Healthcare NHS Trust, but day case surgery is commissioned by NHS Devon and provided by Royal Devon and Exeter NHS Foundation Trust.

John Finn, who is responsible for commissioning NHS services in eastern Devon, said: "The Royal Devon and Exeter NHS Foundation Trust (RD&E) has notified us that the day case unit at Axminster Community Hospital is not as well used as it could be, and therefore expensive to run."

Dr Phil Taylor - who is a GP based at Axminster Medical Practice - said: "The Axminster GPs have been told that the RD&E Hospital is withdrawing from providing most surgery in Axminster."

"As local GPs we deplore the withdrawal of these services and urge the RD&E to reconsider."

SEATON

Council to oppose 'massive' plan

SEATON Town Council has submitted a seven-page long objection to a massive development proposed for land east of Harepath Road.

Seaton Park Devon Ltd wishes to provide a mixed use development of approximately 170 homes, offices, workshops and two football pitches.

The developer submitted an outline planning application last month to East Devon District Council's (EDDC) planning department.

In a letter to the planning department the town council presents a wide list of arguments against the proposal.

The list of arguments is, among other things, based on feedback from a public meeting organised by the town council, which attracted about 70 people. The meeting was called because the town council felt that the development would have a "major impact" on the town if allowed.

One concern is the impact the development would have on the green wedge between Seaton and Colyford.

The town council's letter of objection said: "Seaton Town Council, Colyton Town Council and the mayor and burgesses of Colyford are opposed to any coalescence of our unique communities."

Another passage of the letter said: "This development will severely alter the character of the landscape of the area."

Pulman's View from the churches

Father Michael Koppel from Axminster writes:

HOW good it is to see the crib set up in church again! A favourite with people of all ages, it's evidence of the enduring power of the Christmas story to touch the hearts and minds of human beings as no other story has ever been able to do.

At one level, the crib just gives expression to the feelings every family has when a child is born. Part of the fascination of the Christmas story is the fact that we can all identify so easily with the figures around the baby Jesus: with Mary and Joseph and the shepherds.

Yet that would never have been possible if our Lord had not first chosen to identify with us. But identify with us he did. Not only with the joys of our human condition. But also with its sorrows. That takes us right to the heart of the Christmas message, and right to the heart of the Christian mystery as well. The birth of Jesus at Christmas we know is 'God is with us' and that is why we have such good reason to celebrate at this time!

HMRC has formally announced that it plans to launch its new service foreshadowed in Budget 2011, Charities Online, in April 2013. The new system will enable charities and churches to submit Gift Aid claims electronically. Charities and Churches need to be prepared for the changes and to start planning early about what these changes mean for the local church.

The Church of England has published The Church Weddings Handbook, setting out proposed changes to the way it conducts weddings. These plan "giving the go-ahead for glitzy Posh and Becks-style ceremonies in churches", adding that "unusual twists will be welcomed, such as the use of trained owls to carry the rings to the best man." The reforms follow a four-year review, aimed at reversing a fall in church marriages. CoFe weddings only account for one in four.

The jam-jar saga seems to be reaching a conclusion, which is that the matter continues to be governed by EU law which is cast in very general terms. Our Food Standards Agency cannot simply declare that the law does not apply. But enforcement remains a matter for local authorities; and it is now extremely unlikely that any local authority would seek to prosecute anyone purely for selling or giving away preserves bottled in a re-used jam-jar. Reaction to the scare circular seems to have ended threat of enforcement even if the EU rules have not changed. Common sense prevails!

£10,000 for Hospiscare

■ REACHING A HUGE GOAL: Hospiscare Supporters Director of income generation, Kate Few-Singh, organiser of the event, Eve Deanus, Hospiscare supporters Sheila Pike, Pat Robins, Angela Stringer and Peter Deanus, bingo caller Ken Knight and support group coordinator, Barry Carpenter with their celebratory cake.

HOSPISCARE fundraisers from Seaton and Colyford have been celebrating after their regular bingo sessions have raised £10,000 in just over three years.

The regular bingo sessions held at Colyford Memorial Hall, every Tuesday evening, began around three years ago with just 17 members and now attract more than 50 people per session.

Aiming to raise money for Hospiscare and run by dedicated fundraiser Eve Deanus, the group has been shown a great deal of support over the years, and organisers are pleased with the event's success.

At a special celebratory bingo night, Mrs Deanus and her regular group of fundraisers were joined by Hospiscare's support group coordinator Barry Carpenter and director of income generation Kate Few-Singh, from the Exeter based hospice to say thank you for all their hard work.

By Laura Goldsbury-Noy
laura@pemedi.co.uk

Whilst Mrs Deanus presented the visiting pair with the latest £1,000 cheque, the bingo organising group received a special commemorative cake in return.

Support group coordinator Mr Carpenter said: "It has been lovely to come along this evening to show our thanks and support from the hospice for all the work Eve and her team have done for us."

"£10,000 is a huge achievement which will help us greatly and we are just so grateful to Eve and her team as well as to all the regular bingo supporters who turn out in all weathers to continue their fundraising."

Organiser of the Hospiscare bingo, Mrs Deanus added: "I am absolutely delighted to have Barry and Kate from the hospice here today and so pleased to have raised such a huge amount for Hospiscare."

"Not only is the hospice an important and valuable resource in Exeter, but the community nurses and team at Seaton Hospital's daycare centre are a huge help to many in our local area, and so we are supporting a very worthy cause."

"Thank you to all who come out to sponsor Hospiscare and support our bingo nights regularly. It is always a lovely atmosphere and a friendly fantastic night and all are welcome to join us."

● THE bingo sessions run every Tuesday night with eyes down at 8pm from Colyford Memorial Hall and all are welcome to join in the event.

■ CHRISTMAS CELEBRATION FOR THE COMMUNITY - More than 100 guests arrived at Colyford Memorial Hall for the Seaton and District Lions annual senior citizens lunch.

Lions lay on a Christmas spread

MEMBERS of the Seaton and District Lions dug out their festive attire and Santa hats when they hosted their annual senior citizens' lunch for the local community.

Welcoming over 100 residents from Seaton, Beer, Colyton, Colyford and Axmouth to Colyford Memorial Hall, the Lions put on a festive afternoon for all to enjoy.

Lunch guests were welcomed by Lions president Neil Rutter, before sitting down ready for a three-course meal, provided by Monica Collins'

Country Kitchens team.

The guests pulled crackers and put on their paper hats whilst around 20 volunteers from the Lions served up chicken and vegetable soup to start followed by Christmas roast turkey with all the trimmings and Christmas pudding for dessert.

Entertainment then followed from Seaton's well-known performer and singer, Mary Bowles who delighted the audience with a number of songs before inviting the crowd to join in with some carol singing.

Seaton and District Lion, David Rickard said: "The annual senior citizens lunch was once again a great success and it has been excellent service for the Lions to give back to the elderly members of the local community."

"A lot of people are on their own around the Christmas period so it has been nice to allow them to enjoy the festivities and invite them along to the event so they can meet with others and celebrate."

Mel didn't miss a single day's study in five years at college

AN Axminster girl has been rewarded for her remarkable school attendance record.

Axe Valley Community College student Mel Ayres did not miss a single day of lessons in the five years she spent in the main school at the Axminster college.

She is now in the first year of the college's Sixth Form studying for A-levels.

Education chiefs at Devon County Council (DCC) cannot find another single instance of 100 per cent attendance over five years at another secondary school - so Mel's achievement may be unique in the county.

By Anders Larsson
anders@tindlenews.co.uk

In any case, her achievement was deemed so remarkable that it was the main feature of a celebratory assembly at the college.

Mel was presented with a certificate and book vouchers by Devon's principal education welfare officer, Beverley Dubash, and said: "When I was at Axminster Primary School I only had one afternoon off school in the whole time I was there."

Work ethic

"But for that I would have had 100 per cent attendance throughout my entire primary and secondary education."

"I think I got my work ethic from my mother. She also attended Axminster Primary School followed by Axe Valley Community College and her attendance record was almost as good as mine. I was determined to beat her record."

"I have always enjoyed school because that's where I see my friends. I still cannot imagine taking any time off if I can possibly help it. I genuinely enjoy my lessons."

"Of course there are times that I do feel a bit under the weather like everyone else, but if I missed school, I would only have to catch up later, so I'd rather go in. Generally though, I am fortunate that I don't tend to get sick."

Head of Sixth Form Greg Horn praised the youngster, saying: "Mel is a great example to other students. She is friendly, committed, hard working and a credit to the sixth form."

DCC's Cabinet member for schools, Andrea Davis, said: "Melissa has set an excellent example."

"It's a old cliché but you have to be in school to learn and Mel is the proof of the pudding with an excellent set of GCSE results."

■ SAX APPEAL: The choir gave a sterling performance in aid of Flamingo Pool

Saxophonists raise £150 for pool fund

SAXMINSTER, a group of musicians based in Axminster, played the full variety of saxophones from soprano to baritone when raising money for the Flamingo Pool Liner Appeal.

The 90-strong crowd in Kilminster Village Hall was treated to a wide selection of tunes ranging from a Glenn Miller medley through Broadway showtunes, a selection of British pieces, including Amazing Grace and the Londonderry Air, to the Ave Verum by Mozart.

The concert, which was free to attend with a collection taken at the end, ended with the audience joining in on a toe-tapping saxophone version of the 1960s Crystals Da Doo Ron Ron.

The gig took place on Sunday, December 9th and a total of £150 was raised for the swimming pool's liner appeal. The saxophone group currently boasts 18 members.

Member Norman Hughes said "Under the direction and leadership of Axminster's own highly talented music teacher and professional saxophonist, Alison Davies, the Saxminsters are an all-ages group, established five years ago, who meet every Tuesday evening in Axe Valley Community College."

"The choir would be pleased to welcome new members who wish to join this fun loving set of saxophonists."

Anyone interested in joining can call contact Alison Davies on 01297 34098 or email saxophoneali@yahoo.co.uk for more information

Planning a career under the waves

A TRAINEE submariner from Axminster is setting sail on a new career after completing his Royal Navy basic training at HMS Raleigh in Cornwall.

The ten-week course gave him a thorough induction into the Royal Navy, learning skills that he will rely upon throughout his time in the service.

The former pupil of The Woodroffe School, who previously worked in a bar, said: "I joined the Royal Navy for a great career. Training has been challenging, but it's definitely been a worthwhile experience and I've made lots of new mates for life on the way."

With the first phase of his training complete, Joshua is heading for HMS Collingwood in Hampshire where he will learn about the weapons systems on board submarines, the safety procedures and how to make electrical and electronic repairs.

Once fully qualified as an engineering technician, Joshua will be taught how to operate beneath the waves at the Royal Navy Submarine School based at HMS Raleigh.

A spokesperson for The Royal Navy said: "The initial naval training course is underpinned by nine core maritime skills that are the foundations of naval life and underpin operational effectiveness.

"With Royal Navy personnel playing a vital role in Afghanistan and other land-based operations, recruits undergo training in basic combat skills which includes survival in the field.

"Fitness is a key component of the training and is delivered using a disciplined method of military fitness which focuses on developing co-ordination and individual physical strength and endurance.

"As the course progresses the recruits take part in three extended exercises to test their skills and understanding of the principles they have been taught."

School bazaar attracts big crowd to see Santa

AXMINSTER Guildhall was packed to the rafters for St Mary's Primary School kept visitors entertained through its choir and orchestra.

Opened by Axminster mayor Andrew Moulding, the event was also visited by Santa and Axminster town crier Nick Goodwin.

Apart from stalls offering a vast choice of wares, St Mary's Primary School kept visitors entertained through its choir and orchestra.

Organisations from outside the town were also present, including the Seaton branch of Age UK Devon.

The four-strong-team seemed to enjoy it and one of them, Anne Howe, said: "It's nice to see so many people.

"It's really good."

The bazaar was held on Saturday, December 1st.

Webster's mural taking shape

HALF-term saw members of the public attend Axminster Arts workshops in Route 66 Express.

They worked on the second phase of the Webster mural project, led by artist Steve Fisher.

The first phase was completed in July when the middle section of the dilapidated building's frontage was covered by a mural. There is no target date for completion of phase two, but anyone interested in joining the project can visit Axminster Arts Cafe or contact project co-ordinator Tim Leat on 01297 35187 (evenings), 01404 812228 (daytime) or Norrlett@aol.com for more information.

Scott Rowe's Christmas party

■ PARTNERS and staff at the Axminster branch of Scott Rowe Solicitors invited other members of the local business community to a festive evening on Friday, December 7th.

The guests were treated to wine and a finger buffet, and also had the opportunity to enter a raffle in aid of Axminster's recently formed foodbank, Canned Sunshine.

■ POOLING RESOURCES: Flamingo Pool manager Steve Buxton receives the cheque from Axe Vale Festival chairman Claire Morgan in the company of other other AGM attendees.

Axe Vale Festival supports Flamingo Pool with donations of £20,000

THE main swimming pool at the Flamingo Pool complex in Axminster was emptied on Sunday, December 2nd so the liner can be replaced.

As previously reported, The Flamingo Pool Liner Appeal was launched earlier this year.

Pool manager Steve Buxton received a £10,000 cheque when he attended the annual general meeting of Axe Vale Festival on Wednesday, November 21st, taking the total festival contribution to £20,000.

Mr Buxton was very grateful and thanked the festival committee for its generosity and hard work.

He added: "We are emptying the pool next week, so if anybody needs some water..."

It is hoped the main pool will reopen at some point between Christmas and New year.

Further information will be available online at www.flamingopool.co.uk

Charis meets Max for reading 100 books

NINE-year-old Charis Wood was greeted by a special visitor at Axminster Library.

Charis had completed the Book Track challenge by reading 100 books and her certificate was presented by Devon County Council Library Service mascot Max (see lefty)

Apart from a certificate, she was also given a badge and a bag containing vouchers for Archway Bookshop, Pecorama, Escot and Flamingo Pool.

Charis is an avid Jacqueline Wilson, so staff had also prepared a quiz based on questions about the author.

Christmas pedalling

□ SUNDAY SQUAD: AVP members gathered at the Seafront in Seaton before the ride

MEMBERS of Seaton-based Axe Valley Pedallers (AVP) found time for a ride to Colyton ride as well as a black tie Christmas celebration evening last week.

About 20 riders turned up for a pleasant spin along the Axe estuary to Boshill Cross and then northwards along Cownhayne Lane.

AVP member Robert Watson said: "Cownhayne Lane is part of the Stop Line Way (National Cycle Network Route 33) and is usually the first local road to be flooded.

"On Sunday the water was a mere six inches deep and presented no serious barrier, although some tandem passengers were seen to put their feet on the handlebars!"

The group stopped for a festive coffee and mince pie at Colyton Tramway Café, where there was plenty of activity both on the tramway and in Santa's Grotto, before wending their way back through Colyford to Seaton.

Mr Watson added: "The Stop Line Cycle Way is now making excellent progress north of Axminster with a new smooth tarmac section almost ready to be unveiled, running alongside the railway and the River Axe.

"This will link with the existing section via Kilminster with a signposted route past Axminster Station and through the town.

"Further south, discussions are concluding on the exact route through Colyford. The Stop Line Way will eventually stretch all the way from Seaton to the north coast of Devon."

Later in the day, more than 50 members gathered at The White Hart in Colyford for the formal black tie evening. More information about the club is available online at www.axvalleypedallers.org.uk

Nut trees for the future commemorate the past

BEER villagers and parish councillors gathered at the Cowerslea Way footpath for a tree planting ceremony to commemorate this year's Queen's Diamond Jubilee.

Beer Parish Council were presented with a gift donation of £500 from Lord Clinton's Charitable Trust for use towards the royal celebrations and were pleased to accept the money on behalf of the village.

The money donated from the trust was split into two, with half of the funds contributing to the village's street party in June and the other half used to purchase sustainable trees and hedging plants for the Cowerslea Way site.

Members of the parish council, green fingered village volunteers, and Axe Air Explorer Scout 15 year old Henry Richards planted a walnut, sweet chestnut and cob nut tree along the side of the footpath, which was created last year to enable a safe passage from Beer to Seaton.

■ SUSTAINABLE TREES FOR THE FUTURE: Parish councillors Mike Green and Eric Cozens, Axe Air Explorer Scout Henry Richards, chairman of the parish council, Martin Richards, Caroline Fowle and Councillor Jim Knight are pictured at the special Cowerslea Way nut tree planting ceremony to commemorate the Queen's Diamond Jubilee

Parish Councillor, Mike Green said: "We are delighted to be planting these three nut trees today, which we hope will not only add to the beauty of the Cowerslea Way footpath but will also act as a communal resource where villagers will be able to pick nuts during the winter months when the trees have flourished."

Chairman of the parish council, Martin Richards began the proceedings by welcoming the crowd to the ceremony and thanked the Lord Clinton's Charitable Trust and Caroline Fowle for her involvement in making the donation possible.

On planting the first tree, Mrs Fowle said: "I am really thrilled to be a part of the tree planting ceremony and to have helped and contributed so that this path can come into fruition.

"The trees will hopefully become a valuable resource for the community and for the tourists who use the path from Beer to Seaton."

axcess electric-bikes

Axcess-Electric-Bikes has completed a second successful year. The introduction of own brand range of electric bikes has proved a great success. The bikes have proved popular and reliable in use. The European market for electric bikes continues to expand with Germany leading the way with sales of 310,000 pa. and The Netherlands second with 178,000 and a total of 1 million e-bikes on the road. The UK runs a poor 6th with 20,000 sales. The British Electric Bike association state 75% of purchasers chose their particular bike because it has a Twist & Go throttle.

The threat to make the throttle illegal in the UK has retreated as the European Commission is considering permitting the throttle. They now recognise that electric bikes can substantially reduce the number of short car journeys made. Research into batteries for the car market means that electric bike batteries are becoming, lighter and greater capacity. Some users report that, when using pedal assist, they get over 50 miles on a single charge.

Take Care of your batteries.

Do not forget that lithium batteries need a bit of TLC during the winter. Do not leave them in a cold damp shed or garage, or you may well find that they will not take a charge at all in the spring.

Keep them in a warm spot and charge for 30 minutes monthly to ensure they do not become fully discharged. Best of all use the bike regularly and re-charge after use.

Merry Christmas and an Active New Year.

Something for everyone at the library

SEATON'S book lovers enjoyed a Christmas coffee morning at Seaton Library where they were given the chance to share extracts from their favourite books of 2012.

The drop in morning, celebrating literature and the library, featured a number of favourite 2012 books chosen by librarians and supervisors at Seaton Library as well as offering visitors the chance to share their own reading highlights of the year.

Members of the Seaton Poetry Readers Group also attended the event, creating a corner of soothing reading and discussions.

Axe Valley Community College students, Anna Edwards and Gercelynn Dionio joined in the morning whilst completing their work experience at the library, chatting to the visitors and serving warm refreshments and biscuits.

A pantomime perfect for Colyton

COLYTON Theatre Group put their own spin on a pantomime classic for this year's production of "Wick Dittington", written and directed especially for the town by Jane Dickson.

Wick Dittington is Dick Whittington's lesser-known cousin whose travels take him to Colyton, rather than London, as in the original story.

Wick, confidently played by Cai Sutherland, and his cat Ditwit, played by brother Joe Sutherland, are quickly taken in by the friendly Colyton community and Wick lands a job at Colystores, where much of the play is set and what must be the busiest village shop for miles around!

There he meets shop assistants Collie and Ton (Roger Bagg and Lyn Henley) and the ditsy Idle Jack, played by Jeanette Sutherland – another member of the talented family – as well as shopkeeper Mr Colystores (Mike Ilsey) and his daughter Alice (Rosie Underdown), who Wick falls head over heels for.

Colystores is kept busy everyday with regular customers, including the grumpy Maurice Mumble (Hannan Sitton) and classic panto dames Ima Dither

By Francesca Evans
francesca@pemedial.co.uk

(Derek Wenn) and Sarah (Mick Askew) who lusts after Mr Colystore.

All is happy and cheerful in Colyton – too happy and cheerful according to villain Coly Rat (Philip Price) and his band of naughty rodents. The rats decide everyone in town is too happy and set about trashing Colystores.

Luckily, Wick and pussycat Ditwit are quickly on the scene to scare the rats away. The young rats soon get fed up having to hide from their feline foe, so they decide to behave themselves so the people of Colyton will let them join in the Christmas party.

Meanwhile, Wick is left devastated when Mr Colystores refuses his request for Alice's hand in marriage as he is not a Colyton Feoffee. Desperate to win him over, Wick turns up at the Feoffees' meeting only to find out their secretive business entails ballet dancing!

With the pantomime set in Colyton there was plenty of opportunities for local jokes and gibes, including The Tiny Shop (formerly The Little Shop but it shrank in the rain!) and its cheerful but never-seen shopkeeper Tony – a parody of Tony Hibberd who later appeared on stage to hand out presents to the younger members of the cast and won a huge cheer from the audience.

Cast:

Sweeper – Cynthia Bell, Mop – Dawn Spiller, Wick Dittington – Cai Sutherland, Ditwit – Joe Sutherland, Idle Jack – Jeanette Sutherland, Collie – Roger Bagg, Ton – Lyn Henley, Tony – Justin Sutherland, Coly Rat – Philip Price, Farmer Jog – Jerry Parkhouse, Pearl – Karen Pledger, Plain – Victoria Rose, Drop'd One – Simon Ford, Maurice Mumble – Hannan Sitton, Ima Dither – Derek Wenn, Chi-Chi Bonbon – Jacquie McCullough, Mr Colystore – Mike Ilsey, Alice – Rosie Underdown, Sarah – Mick Askew, Rat Bag – Wendy Cann, Lib Booker – Jessica Barrett, Lab Booker – Graham Cumming, Mrs Ache – Jackie Roberts-Wake, Leigh – Alice Price, Coly Bobby – Issy Incognito, Daisy the Cow – Jackie Roberts-Wake and Jeanette Sutherland.

Rat Pack: Booga Rat – Alice Underdown, Splinter – Josh Coleman, Hench Rat – Charlie Kendall, Rattata – Marth Budden.

Ratlings: Brax – Eoin NeNeice, Rat Bert – Alexander McNeice, Rattus – Rosie Kendall, Rocket – Milly Kendall, Beany – Sophie Bishop, Peanuts – Holly Sweeny, Minka – Bethany Cook, Raticus – Hollie Coleman.

Musicians: Piano – Pam Cowell, Bass – Michael Bond, Drums – Clive Wormleighton.

Production Team:

Writer and Director – Jane Dickson, Stage Manager – Hilary Briers, Choreography – Jessica Barrett, Caller – Cathy Ilsey, Lighting – John Newton (Lime-light), Wardrobe – Kathryn Mason, Wendy Cann, Margot Sharp, Jean Askew and Linda Matlock, Make-Up and Hair – Sheila Clare and Jill Mole, Props – Jane Dickson and Jackie Roberts-Wake, Set – Roger Bagg, Brian Sharp and Karen Pledger, Poster – David Clarke, Newspaper – Jane Dickson and Jackie Roberts-Wake, Programme – Roger Bagg, Raffle – Jacquie McCullough and Jane Sherwood, Front of House – Tish Wells and Colyton Theatre Group members.

■ LOCAL GIBES: Above, the panto's hilarious take on the Colyton Feoffees. Below, the cast in the opening number and, left, Ditwit, Wick, Alice and Leigh (Joe and Cai Sutherland, Rosie Underdown and Alice Price)

Specialist Dementia Care in Exmouth & Devon

Give Your loved One The Gift Of A Fulfilling Life At Rose Lodge Care Home

Imagine the peace of mind you'll feel knowing that your loved one is getting the best possible care in a loving and understanding environment. Located in the delightful seaside town of Exmouth, Rose Lodge is the perfect place for people living with Dementia to experience the highest quality of life.

Caring for someone with dementia yourself can be tiring and often very distressing. Coping with someone whom you may have known and loved for years but who may now often fail to recognise you can be desperately upsetting and difficult to deal with.

Rose Lodge is an active and social home. We have found that people with dementia are generally happier when they are supported to be as active and independent as possible. Our weekly activities programme includes gardening, live music, drama, singing, crafts, a pub quiz, rambling, art, and trips out, as well as individual occupational activities.

So, moving into a home like Rose Lodge is the perfect way for you to give your loved one the best quality of life. In our 2011 relatives survey, all relatives agreed that Rose Lodge offers an excellent quality of care and that their loved one's wellbeing has improved significantly since they joined Rose Lodge. All of them said they would recommend Rose Lodge to their friends.

We offer DAY CARE, RESPITE CARE and RESIDENTIAL CARE and free trial days.

Please call Peter or Karen now on 01395 227071 to discuss your needs.

Santa pays a visit to Hawkchurch festivities

RESIDENTS of Hawkchurch got into the festive spirit at the village's annual Christmas Fayre.

The fayre was held in the village hall with a number of games and stalls selling local crafts and gifts. Children were excited when Father Christmas paid a visit to the event on his sleigh, courtesy of Axminster Lions Club.

The event was organised by Hawkchurch Fete Committee for the first time this year and raised £329 for local good causes. The committee agreed to split the money between Bridport Ukulele Group, Axminster Lions Club and Hawkchurch Village Hall.

Stolen car used in garden centre burglary

POLICE believe that a car stolen from a driveway in Dalwood was used in a burglary.

A window of a house in Dalwood was forced open in the early hours of Monday, December 10th and a set of car keys was stolen.

The incident took place between midnight and 4am and a grey Ford Focus was taken from the driveway.

That morning police were called to a garden centre in Exmouth and found a safe in the car park.

Further investigation showed that the garden centre had been broken into and the safe removed.

The car stolen in Dalwood was seen near the garden centre and officers gave chase.

The driver managed to shake off the officers and the car was later found abandoned near Ottery St Mary.

Anyone who may have noticed something suspicious in Dalwood at the relevant time is asked to call police on 101 and ask for Honiton CID.

The crime reference number is KA/12/636.

AXMINSTER GARDEN MACHINERY

AXMINSTER Garden Machinery was formed in 1999 Phil Roper who has worked in the horticultural industry as a garden machinery expert for over 32 years.

Axminster Garden Machinery have a large showroom and parts department as well as a fully equipped workshop so you can actually view and handle virtually every type of machinery we supply. If working hours mean you can't come during the opening ours someone can meet you on site or open the show room for you at an arranged time. Ideally they always like to do a site visit especially when choosing perhaps ride-ons or larger equipment and give you some honest advice and to see the garden or working area. The aim is to know that the customer's needs and concerns have been met to give them quality, user-friendly equipment at the right price with a full service package, to make the maintenance of their garden a pleasurable experience.

Here there is always someone to help with machinery to suit all budgets. Everything they supply is for the UK market and is always fully pre-delivery inspected. They only take payment when the customer is happy!

When repairing machinery we at Axminster Garden Machinery firmly believe in quality engineering and design when it comes to new equipment and I personally carefully select every piece of machinery we sell and have used and tested all the machinery we offer. We pride ourselves on the fact that all the equipment we sell we are factory main appointed dealers for this gives the customer a piece of mind when it comes to spares or repairs or servicing. We can provide the full backup.

Axminster Garden Machinery are a complete garden machinery business: they are main dealers for everything we sell which means they offer you the complete package, with full back up service and parts.

a complete horticultural and ground care equipment independent Specialist. Offering you the customer a complete package and much more ..

We at Axminster Garden Machinery are small enough to care and big enough to cope.

Christmas lunch for National Trust members

EIGHTY members of the Axe Valley National Trust Centre enjoyed a special change of venue as they gathered together for their Christmas celebrations.

The group enjoyed a three-course meal, taking over the restaurant at the West Cliff Hotel in Sidmouth. This was the first time members had ventured from their usual location at Colyford Memorial Hall for their festive meet in 37 years.

Alongside a huge choice of dishes, the majority of the group opted for a traditional Christmas dinner with all the trimmings, pulled crackers and wore paper hats.

The Axe Valley National Trust Centre have had a busy year hosting six trips and two holidays with one to Wales and one abroad to Cyprus, as well as various fundraising events such as craft fairs, a jubilee lunch, concerts, theatre trips and walks.

Chairman Michael Goodliff thanked the many people who attended the Christmas lunch and said he was pleased with the support shown both from the public and the centre's members during 2012.

During the lunch, the guests also enjoyed a Christmas quiz and a grand draw.

■ A FAMILY AFFAIR: Chairman of the Axe Valley National Trust Centre, Michael Goodliff, welcomed family members visiting from France for the Christmas dinner. Below, some of the 80 guests attending Under water or under siege?

■ I AM frustrated and angered by the continued speculative planning applications for further development in Feniton.

It's not needed, and it's not wanted, the village infrastructure is at breaking point already.

Our property was severely flood damaged in 2008, and if it had it not been for the valiant efforts of neighbours, I am fairly sure flood damage again on both occasions in November of this year would have occurred once more.

How can the filling of the ground with thousands of tonnes of concrete help the situation?

If you put a pebble in a jar of water, the water rises - same principle!

The drains cannot cope with the waste and run off from the village as it currently stands, how will another development improve things?

It won't, it will create more fast flowing areas of surface water running to the lowest points in the village.

The school is at bursting point, unless the catchment area is significantly reduced, it cannot accommodate further increases in numbers in its current position. The roads are far too narrow to accommodate another 200 plus vehicles a day on the narrow dangerous lanes into the village, they are already in a poor state of repair.

As for the roads on any new development, for those unlucky enough to live on any new estate, I bet the planners will give you the minimum spaces parking too.

So beware, an anti-social behaviour hotspot will develop as neighbours fall out over parking spaces. We live in a society of two-car families, and public transport services in Feniton are not sustainable or accessible as portrayed by the developers. Will they provide off road parking for two cars for each house?

A garage is one idea, but let's be honest, how many of those reading this put their car in the garage - and how many have converted their garages to an extra room?

Residents of Colestocks, Payhembury, Luton... Don't think you will be immune. Those people will have to work, and if they work in Cullompton, Tiverton, Taunton, etc, guess which way they are going to be driving twice a day.

So you need to think carefully whether our village growing will adversely affect you.

I am not against development, but it must be managed, sustainable, and suitable. Feniton is not the place for development!

We have been bullied into a development adjacent Louvigny Close. This on land that already is a primary cause of flooding to the existing village. No more development in Feniton. We are full.

Plans 12/2468/MOUT and 12/2469/MOUT are the latest applications to besiege our village.

Last chance to have any influence over Local Plan

■ I REFER to your lead article of December 11th in Pulman's View from Axminster regarding the Cloakham Judicial Review. Whichever way the judgement of the High Court is made, it is important that the final phase of the consultation process for the Local Plan is understood and followed.

The people of Axminster only have until January 14th 2013 to make their feelings known. They need to understand that all previous correspondence to EDDC will not be shown to the Planning Inspector and only the correspondence sent during December 2012 and before 14th January 2013 will have any bearing with the inspector.

The inspector will have to power to refuse aspects of the proposed plan and will be influenced by the public response.

The final form of the proposed Cloakham development in the Local Plan has not been changed by EDDC despite the extent of the local concern: hence the need for the Judicial Review. The concerns have fallen into the four main categories; building outside the town boundary, loss of green recreational space, traffic chaos and increased flooding.

The alternative development on the east side of Axminster to include a north/south relief road is generally regarded as the priority and is now, for the first time, included in the Plan.

I would urge all those of rational mind to write to EDDC, Planning Policy Team, Knowle, Sidmouth or email to localplan@eastdevon.gov.uk as this is the very last and most significant opportunity in the planning process to make an objection to the proposed allocation of the Cloakham Parkland for building purposes.

Paul Arnott
Save Our Parkland

Good to see 'silent majority' making their feelings known

■ I WRITE regarding the recent letters from John Kelly about planning locally and the replies from Derek Sturch and Paul Diviani.

I would suggest the reason why 4,000 people demonstrated in Sidmouth, was the fact that they didn't want to see their beautiful countryside being concreted over, the necessity not being obvious and just as bad, EDDC not giving a damn about their views.

This indifference to East Devon residents seems to be throughout the area, not just in Sidmouth. It's good to see the 'silent majority' making their presence known.

Here in Seaton the consensus was against Tesco,

Windsor Gardens have been ripped up to facilitate a dubious development while in the last few weeks another large development has come to light which will destroy the buffer of land between Seaton and Colyford.

Packed meetings have shown local feelings to be overwhelmingly anti.

UKIP's policy of binding referenda would have stopped these.

Having known John Kelly for some time I can assure readers his knowledge of the workings of the EU is spot on, our 'membership' of the EU is, of course, detrimental to the country.

Carol singing extravaganza

MILLERS Farm Shop, Kilmington, will host a Carol singing extravaganza, starting at 3pm on Thursday, December 22nd.

Everyone is invited to come along to enjoy or even join in the carol singing. Formally named Carols for the Community, the event will be complete with live musicians, free mulled wine and hot roast chestnuts and an opportunity to take part in Get in the Picture.

Lead organiser Darrell Holmes of Kilmington Baptist Church said: "This is an opportunity for people of all ages to dress in costumes and have their photo taken in our nativity scene."

"This will be uploaded to a dedicated website so that people can download and print them at home for an unforgettable experience and memory to treasure."

A very reggae Christmas

FORMED in 2010 Bristol Reggae Orchestra's debut performance turned renowned South West classical musical venue St George's into a seething dance hall and sold out.

Since then their live performances have confirmed the Orchestra as one to watch. A collective of 35 musicians, they draw on reggae, ska, and jazz to bring us a compelling repertoire featuring both new works and much loved classics from the likes of Bob Marley and Lord Tanamo. Listen out for a particular blend of toe-tapping, crowd-pleasing world music with verve, commanding solos and an infectious beat.

The Bristol Reggae Orchestra play at the Marine Theatre, Lyme Regis on Saturday, December 22nd. Doors open at 7.30pm, with the band onstage at 8pm. Tickets cost £12/£10.50 (a TheatreFriends discount is available), and are available from Lyme Regis Tourist Information Centre (01297 442138) or online at www.marinetheatre.com

Have a merry time at Axminster Christmas Beer Festival

AXMINSTER Guildhall will be the venue of a Christmas Beer Festival this coming Saturday, hosted by the Three Brewers, local micro breweries Artbrew of Chideock with Town Mill Brewery and The Mighty Hop Brewery both of Lyme Regis.

The Three Brewers will host a traditional festival from noon till 11pm featuring some twelve festive beers and real ales. For those who prefer the apple to the malt there will also be several real ciders from local artisan producers. The beers and ciders will be served by the brewers themselves so you can meet the makers!

The Brewers had planned a Beer Festival in Axminster in the summer but this was unfortunately washed out by the extreme wet weather; they are looking forward to a great event this weekend.

Entry is free, hot food provided by Cottage Cooks of Seaton and entertainment all day long from Fat Marrow Blues Band and Ben Kapur, crooner and the DJ will be Sound of Muzak.

Your guide to the best Christmas telly

CHRISTMAS television - up there with Brussel sprouts as a festive opinion divider - usually caters for all telly tastes, and this year is no different.

TV

THIS year's Christmas schedule is scattered with new series, climaxes of popular series, over-the-top soaps, and everyone's favourites - the Christmas Special.

Saturday, December 22nd (at 7.55pm, BBC1) and Christmas Eve (8.15pm, BBC1) will give fans of hit show Merlin the series' final outings - a dramatic two-part conclusion which sees the prophets' predictions play out.

MERLIN | The end is near as the prophecys play out. Can Merlin save the day once more?...?

Following Merlin on BBC1 on Christmas Eve will be a Christmas Special of Outnumbered (9.35pm), starring Hugh Dennis and Claire Skinner. The kids are not amused by their parents rather embarrassing Christmas party. Outnumbered is followed at 10.15pm by the first of a two part Christmas Special of the hit show Mrs Brown's Boys, where Agnes has to juggle her family arriving for Christmas with staging a Nativity play. Second part on Boxing Day at 9.30pm.

A night of classic comedy might be the perfect end to Christmas Eve, with old favourites Morecambe & Wise (...Song and Dance, 7.30pm) and the Two Ronnies (Open All Hours 8.30pm; Porridge 9pm; Ronnie Barker: The Many Faces of... 9.40pm; Two Ronnies: Studio Recordings 10.40pm; Being Ronnie Corbett 11.10pm) taking over BBC2 from 7.30pm.

Christmas Day. What can possibly keep everyone happy when the presents are opened and the turkey is roasting? How about The Nation's Favourite Christmas Song (ITV1, 11.10am), featuring a run down of the top 20 Christmas tunes. And before the Queen's Annual Address (3pm, BBC1, ITV1), Top of the Pops Christmas Special (BBC1, 2pm) continues the musical fun, with performances from Emilie Sande, Robbie Williams and Girls Aloud.

Christmas Specials continue with Doctor Who (BBC1, 5.15pm) as he takes on The Snowmen during Christmas 1892. Strictly Come Dancing's (BBC1 6.15pm) special festive show follows the Doctor, and features comedian Katy Brand, JB from JLS, retired footballer Fabrice Muamba and more.

DR WHO | The terrifying Snowmen bring the chills

8.45pm on Christmas Day offers up one of the schedule's most difficult decisions: Eastenders - always worth catching at Christmas, is on BBC1; The Choir: A year with the Military Wives (BBC2) sees Gareth Malone return to Chivenor; and over on ITV1 one of the year's biggest shows, Downton Abbey, as the Crawleys take a summer break to the Highlands, leaving the servants to prepare for the country fair.

A brand new Royle Family is on BBC1 at 9.45pm, as Barbara goes overboard with gifts from a pound shop.

ROYLE FAMILY Christmas Cheers!

So Boxing Day arrives, and the presents are opened, but fear not; there's the follow up to all the drama of the soaps with Emmerdale, Coronation Street and Eastenders all on. A brand new series of Miranda (BBC1, 9pm) sees Penny threaten to cancel Christmas unless Miranda sorts her life out. Mrs Brown's Boys (BBC1, 9.30pm) follows Miranda with the second part of the festive special, as Agnes finishes the unorthodox script.

As an alternative to all the laughs on BBC1, ITV1 show new drama Doors Open (9pm), starring Douglas Henshall as art-lover Mike, who plans to rip-off a high-profile gallery. Also featuring Stephen Fry.

Panto! (ITV1, 9pm) is the pick of the action on Thursday 27th. Co-written by John Bishop, the Liverpoolian also has a starring role alongside Sheridan Smith and Kenneth Cranham, with a cameo from Chesney Hawkes!

A new three part series, Racing Legends, is also on BBC2 at 8pm, with the first installment following Sir Patrick Stewart and Sir Stirling Moss as they follow the Mille Miglia. The second part (on Friday 28th, 8pm) sees Sir Chris Hoy focusing on Colin McRae.

Channel 4 has a look at the 50 Funniest Moments of 2012 at 9pm, with input from Russell Kane, Stacey Solomon, Rob Beckett and more.

SUPERSTARS | Magic Mo and co take on sporting challenges

The nation's Olympic heroes all go head to head on Saturday 29th, as Superstars returns to BBC1 at 6.45pm. The likes of Mo Farah, Jade Jones and Nicola Adams test their physical and mental abilities in eight disciplines.

BBC2 will show Clive Dunn: a Tribute (6.05pm), followed by Dad's Army (6.45pm), the show Dunn is most famous for.

Another new series starting this winter is Ripper Street, with the first of eight episodes being shown on Sunday 30th at 9pm. A woman is found murdered, and all the signs point to the return of the Jack the Ripper. Is he back, or is a different evil at work?

The third series of The Hotel also begins on the 30th, at 8pm on Channel 4.

The New Year's Eve edition of Top of the Pops features Rita Ora, Robbie Williams, The Script and more from 7pm on BBC1.

Also on the last night of the year is Alan Carr's New Year Spectacular (C4, 9pm), featuring guests Jack Whitehall, Jonathan Ross, Jimmy Carr and more.

And what better way to see in the New Year than Jools's Annual Hootenanny (BBC2, 11.10pm) with music from Petula Clark, Paloma Faith, Adam Ant, Bobby Womack and The Hives.

The New Year kicks off with the second in the new series of Miranda at 9pm on BBC1, and a brand new series of Mrs Brown's Boys starting at 9.30pm also on BBC1.

A special concert featuring Gary Barlow and Friends (ITV1, 9pm) sees the Take That frontman take to the stage of the Manchester Apollo with the likes of JLS, Nicole Scherzinger and Peter Kay.

CHRISTMAS Eve kicks off the festive TV period with a fantastic selection of Christmas films.

The Nightmare Before Christmas (PG, BBC2 9.10am) brings a dark twist to the Christmas flick as Jack Skellington, Halloween organiser, takes over Christmas. A treat with a difference thanks Tim Burton's imaginative production and the musical talents of Danny Elfman.

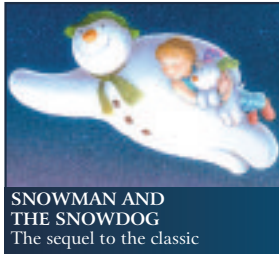

The Muppet Christmas Carol (U, C4, 11.00am) tells Dickens' famous tale with Michael Caine as Scrooge, and features all the loveable puppets.

Nativity! (U, BBC2, 3.55pm), the sequel of which is currently showing at cinemas, stars Martin Freeman as the primary school teacher traumatised by Christmas, who has to direct the annual nativity. An enjoyable family comedy with cameos from Ashley Jensen, Alan Carr and Ricky Tomlinson.

NATIVITY! | Martin Freeman reluctantly organises the school nativity

Two short Christmas films also show in the evening; Ice Age: A Mammoth Christmas (C4, 7.30pm) sees Sid and the gang return for a special festive spin-off; and The Snowman and The Snowdog (C4 8.30pm) is the beautiful animated sequel to The Snowman.

SNOWMAN AND THE SNOWDOG
The sequel to the classic

Also on Christmas Eve are; The Santa Clause (U, BBC1, 12.25pm), Home Alone 2: Lost In New York (PG, C4, 2.50pm), A Christmas Carol (PG, BBC1, 6.45pm)

But it's not just Christmas films. Disney classic Lady and The Tramp (U, BBC1, 5.05pm) incredibly released in 1955, gets a welcome screening.

And it's not just Christmas Eve. Another Disney classic, Aladdin (U, ITV1, 9.25am) screens on Christmas Day – a good start to the big day, with the voice talents of Robin Williams.

Also on Christmas Day, Shrek Forever After (U, BBC1, 3.10pm), the fourth installment in the series, sees the big green guy strike a deal with Rumpelstiltskin that will allow him to return to his own life.

Arguably one of the greatest trilogies ever committed to film, the wonderful Lord of The Rings, is aired in its entirety over the Christmas period on Channel 4;

The Fellowship of the Rings (Christmas Day, PG, 5.40pm) sees the beginning of the journey to Mordor for Frodo and co, on Christmas Day; The Two Towers

LORD OF THE RINGS
Frodo and the Hobbits are on a quest to Mordor

(Boxing Day, 12, 6.55pm), the dark second part sees the group head deep into Sauron territory; and The Return of The King (Saturday 29th, 12, 7.20pm) is the final installment, where a conclusion to the journey must come, one way or another.

Animated adventure How To Train Your Dragon (PG, 5pm) gets a premiere on BBC1 on Boxing Day; whilst classic romantic thriller Rebecca (PG, BBC2, 10.30pm), starring Laurence Olivier and Joan Fontaine, and directed by Alfred Hitchcock, follows The Girl (BBC2, 9pm), a new dramatisation of Hitchcock's relationship with Tippi Hedren.

The (seemingly annual) showing of The Sound of Music (U) is on BBC1 on New Year's Eve. The family musical, starring Julie Andrews is on screens at 3.10pm.

UP | Pixar's incredible animated hit is on BBC1

And so to 2013, top choice for first film of the year would be Disney Pixar's heart wrenchingly beautiful, Oscar-winning UP (U) on New Year's Day at 6.30pm on BBC1. Alternatively, and for a slightly more cheerful spin on things, the classic Wizard of Oz (U), starring Judy Garland, is on Channel 4 at 4.30pm.

Also worth catching during the Christmas and New Year period; Toy Story (Christmas Day, U, ITV1, 1.25pm) and Toy Story 2 (Boxing Day, U, ITV1, 5.15pm), Gremlins (Friday, 28th, 12, ITV1, 10.15pm), Love Actually (Saturday 29th, 15, ITV1, 9.30pm), Edward Scissorhands (Sunday 30th, PG, C4, 2.55pm).

If you still can't find anything you like in the Festive View TV Preview, take a look through the comprehensive listings on pages 7-15 of Festive View.

Kids Christmas Recipes

Have some festive fun with the kids, with this selection of recipes that can be made by the smallest of hands.

Gingerbread Men

1. Heat oven to 200C/180C fan/gas 6. Line 2 baking sheets with baking parchment. Melt butter, sugar and syrup in a pan. Mix flour, soda, spices and a pinch of salt in a bowl. Stir in the butter mix and chopped ginger to make a stiff dough.

2. Wait until cool enough to handle, then roll out dough to about 5mm thick. Stamp out gingerbread men, re-rolling and pressing the trimmings back together and rolling again. Lift onto baking sheets. Bake for 12 mins until golden. Cool 10 mins on the sheets, then lift onto cooling racks.

3. To decorate, mix icing sugar with a few drops of water until thick and smooth. Halve then slice cherries thinly to make smiles, and cut ginger into small squares. Spoon icing into a food bag, snip off the tiniest bit from one corner, then squeeze eyes and buttons, and a tiny smile onto 1 man at a time. Stick on a cherry smile and ginger buttons. Repeat; leave to set. Will keep up to 1 week in an airtight tin.

Tip: Decorating You can also use raisins, sultanas or Smarties to decorate, if you prefer.

Ingredients

140g unsalted butter
100g dark muscovado sugar
3 tbsp golden syrup
350g plain flour
1 tsp bicarbonate of soda
2 tsp ground ginger and 1 tsp ground cinnamon
Pinch of cayenne pepper (optional)
2 balls stem ginger from a jar, chopped

TO DECORATE

50g icing sugar
A few glacé cherries
2 balls stem ginger

Chocolate Log

1. Heat oven to 200C/fan 180C/gas 6. Grease and line a 23 x 32cm Swiss roll tin with baking parchment. Beat the eggs and sugar together with an electric whisk for about 8 mins until thick and creamy.

2. Mix the flour, cocoa and baking powder together, then sift onto the egg mixture. Fold in very carefully, then pour into the tin. Now tip the tin from side to side to spread the mixture into the corners. Bake for 10 mins.

3. Lay a sheet of baking parchment on the work surface. When the cake is ready, tip it onto the parchment, peel off the lining paper, then roll the cake up from its longest edge with the paper inside. Leave to cool.

4. To make the icing, melt the butter and chocolate together in a bowl over a pan of hot water. Take from the heat and stir in the syrup and 5 tbsp cream. Beat in the icing sugar until smooth. Whisk the remaining cream until it holds its shape. Unravel the cake, spread the cream over the top, scatter over the crushed mints, if using, then carefully roll up again into a log.

5. Cut a thick diagonal slice from one end of the log. Lift the log on to a plate, then arrange the slice on the side with the diagonal cut against the cake to make a branch.

6. Spread the icing over the log and branch (don't cover the ends), then use a fork to mark the icing to give the effect of tree bark. Scatter with unsifted icing sugar to resemble snow, and decorate with holly.

Tip: You can leave the mints out if you prefer a more traditional filling.

Ingredients

FOR THE CAKE

3 eggs
85g golden caster sugar
85g plain flour (less 2 tbsp)
2 tbsp cocoa powder
½ tsp baking powder

FOR THE FILLING & ICING

50g butter
140g dark chocolate, broken into squares
1 tbsp golden syrup
284ml pot double cream
200g icing sugar, sifted
2-3 extra-strong mint, crushed (optional)
Icing sugar and holly sprigs to decorate - ensure you remove the berries before serving

Rudolph's Carrot Flapjacks

1. Heat oven to 160C/140C fan/gas 3. Line an 18cm square baking tin with greaseproof paper.

2. Melt butter, golden syrup and sugar in a large pan. Mix in rolled oats, carrots, orange zest, apricots, cinnamon and pumpkin seeds. Stir everything well, then pack into the prepared tin, pushing down firmly.

3. Bake for 40-45 mins, then cool in the tin before slicing into 16 squares.

Ingredients

200g butter
100g golden syrup
50g soft light brown sugar
300g rolled oats
2 grated carrots
zest 1 orange
100g chopped apricots
1 tsp cinnamon
50g pumpkin seeds

Snowball Truffles

1. Pour the cream into a saucepan and bring just up to the boil. Chop the chocolate into small pieces and place in a large bowl. Pour over the boiling cream, then stir until the chocolate and cream are well blended and smooth. Cool, then set aside in the fridge until the mixture is solid, about 2 hrs.

2. Scoop out teaspoons of the mixture and roll into small walnut-size balls with your hands. Sprinkle the coconut onto a plate and roll the truffle in the coconut until evenly covered. Will keep in a cool place for 3 days or freeze for up to 1 month.

Ingredients

200ml double cream
200g good-quality dark chocolate (at least 70% cocoa solids)
200g desiccated coconut

Mulled Apple Juice

A non-alcoholic alternative to mulled wine, ideal for entertaining kids and drivers

7.00 Come Dine with Me Top 30

After over 1,000 episodes, the hosts who failed to impress have often proved more entertaining than those who've risen to the occasion. In this countdown, the menu mishaps range from pigs trotters for a main course to sausage trifles for dessert, while one hostess falls asleep, leaving her guests to do the cooking themselves. At least the chemistry sometimes proves combustible - a little too much so in the case of a gigolo who goes into flirting overdrive with a teacher. (S) (HD) 32621

DRYASABONE SERVICES

DRY CARPET CLEANERS

"FORGET WET"

NO MESS! NO FUSS! NO WATER!

Dryasabone carpet cleaners are a 21st century forward thinking family owned local established company that relies on excellent customer service and satisfaction for repeat business and recommendations. We guarantee to provide a sales gimmick free and reliable service with confirmed appointment times at a time convenient for you the customer not us.

Our expertise lies in dry/low moisture carpet cleaning, which means no-one is going to come along and soak your carpets with dirty water and steam up your windows for the rest of the day. We specialise in the HOST* Dry extraction method which ensures your carpets are clean, dry and looking their best. and back in use immediately. "FORGET WET"

This method of cleaning has been developed over more than 50 years, and is used in over 60 countries and by some of the worlds largest organisations. The price we quote is the full and final price you pay. No other gimmicks will be offered----our reputation is our main selling point and will not be compromised.

The Advantages.

- Uses safe natural bio-degradable non-toxic products
- Safe for children and pets
- No damp dog smells
- Is fully endorsed by major carpet retailers
- No steamy windows
- No sitting in your kitchen for hours waiting for carpets to dry
- No down time for hotels and guest houses
- Your rooms are back in use immediately
- A true earth friendly process

Perodua offer choice with Myvi Wolfrace design limited edition

PERODUA are pleased to offer a choice of two alloy wheel designs for the exclusive limited edition Myvi Wolfrace Design which was launched earlier this year as a result of a collaboration between Perodua and Wolfrace Wheels (UK) Limited.

Only ten units of this limited edition Myvi will be built and customers purchasing one of the remaining vehicles will now have a choice of either 14" silver Wolfrace Davos alloy wheels or 16" black polished Wolfrace Ravenna alloy wheels. The Myvi Wolfrace Design will also be fitted with a silver and red graphics kit including stripes along both sides of the vehicle, chequered flags, Wolfrace Design logo to the rear doors and Wolfrace logo on the tailgate. Exclusive individually numbered black and silver Wolfrace Design front entry guards will be fitted featuring a number between one and ten. All owners of a Myvi Wolfrace Design limited edition will also receive a free Wolfrace travel mug courtesy of Wolfrace Wheels (UK) Limited!

The above is in addition to air conditioning, four electric windows, electrically adjustable colour matched door mirrors and an integrated radio/CD player, which can all be found as standard across the Myvi range. Customers can choose from Ebony Black or Medallion Grey metallic paintwork at no extra cost.

Owning an exclusive limited edition vehicle does not have to come with a hefty price tag, as the Myvi Wolfrace Design starts from just £7,399 when opting for the 14" Davos alloy wheels. Customers choosing the 16" Ravenna alloy wheel option also get exceptional value for money at just £7,999. To enhance the existing high specification further, there is an option of a sport style leather/alcantara interior for an additional £1,000.

With a limited number of vehicles remaining, customers interested in the Myvi Wolfrace Design should contact their nearest Perodua dealer to avoid missing out. Further information along with a full dealer listing is available at www.perodua-uk.com.

A useful start in Life

ARE you maybe thinking of a very useful present for a birthday or Christmas? Then perhaps some driving lessons could be the answer. I have vouchers from £24-£45 or maybe a course of lessons (discounted). It could be the best present ever!

Having a full driving licence is so important for so many reasons, rest assured I teach to a very high standard. I teach safety for life, lessons can be fun and very cost effective.

Quality not Quantity, I have personally developed and perfected over the past years a very unique teaching aid that helps to take away the conscious effort of vehicle control. It helps to co-ordinate hand, feet and eyes, which means I can teach vehicle control in a much shorter time. Then the real art of thinking outside the car begins.

If you have already passed your theory test then there is a strong possibility that you can still pass your practical before Christmas. So why not have an assessment lesson as soon as possible, you might surprise yourself. I also specialise in intensive courses!

David Light teaching safety for life wishes all his past and present pupils a very Happy Christmas and a successful new year.

Scrambled goal takes Tigers to top spot

Alphington 0 Axminster Town 1 SOUTH-WEST PENINSULA LEAGUE DIVISION ONE (EAST)

By Philip Evans

AXMINSTER Town have emerged as the team to beat in Division One following their 1-0 victory over struggling Alphington on Saturday.

The narrow win, courtesy of a late scrambled goal, catapulted the Tigers from fourth to first, sneaking ahead of Budleigh Salterton, who suffered a shock 5-1 defeat at the hands of Appledore who sit in the bottom half of the league.

No one was more pleased to see Axe go top of the table than former chairman Les Bounds.

It was always his ambition to see his home club play at the highest standard possible and Bounds believes his determination to achieve that has now been justified.

"It's what I always wanted and intended and now they have done it," he told Pulman's View Sport.

With Ben Vine unavailable Axminster lined up with Joel Seward out wide, his first start of the season, and he did enough to show manager Paul Ashford that he is worthy of a regular place.

The Alphas, who are struggling near the foot of the table, had the best of the first half and could have opened the scoring when John Holding lifted a good chance over the bar.

Axminster dominated the second period and should have gone in front when awarded a penalty by Richie Emmett's spot-kick was superbly saved by home keeper Scott Telford.

The winning goal came from a goalmouth scramble five minutes from time with The Chronicles pitch in a terrible state.

Man-of-the-match Chris Long was adjudged to have got the final touch, although there were several candidates, such as the Tigers' determination to go home with three points.

Axminster's reign at the top may be short lived with Exmouth Town and Stoke Gabriel, both with games in hand, breathing down their necks. But until Saturday at least Axminster Town sit proudly on top of the area's top league.

Axminster: Luke Ashford; Elliott Dyer, Wes Tarr, Darren Stewart, Chris Long; Aaron Doble, Ollie Highet, Joel Seward, Lewis Couch; Martyn Hancock, Richie Emmett. Subs (all used): Tom Perryman, Jack Knight, Ben Ashford.

AXMINSTER MAN-OF-THE-MATCH: Chris Long.

Sidmouth Town 1 Exeter University 1

SIDMOUTH Town, missing four regulars, hosted a freescoring Exeter Uni side on a superbly prepared pitch at Manstone.

The first-half was keenly contested with the students largely kept at bay by a solid back four and Jack Burgess in the home goal who was rarely troubled.

Town managed to create a number of opportunities with Mark Burdus, Tim Lister and Sam Banks all going close as the momentum was with the home side but the first-half ended goal less.

Within minutes of the restart a long clearance from Burgess found it way through to Sam Baker who made no mistake calmly slotting the ball past the visiting 'keeper. This was no more than the Vikings deserved.

With their tails up Town again opened up the students defence and it was Baker again who almost doubled his and Town's tally with a sweetly struck shot from 25 yards which clipped the outside of the post with the 'keeper well beaten.

Burgess was called into action when a long-range effort was brilliantly dealt with as he dived to his left and gathered the ball in whilst under pressure.

Town were within minutes of their first win of the season unfortunately a couple of desperate challenges on the edge of the box saw the students awarded two free-kicks and from the second of these they drew level.

Niether side could find a winner and it was certainly a point gained as far as the students were concerned.

Sidmouth manager Paddy Thomas said: "I would have happily accepted a point before the game, but given our performance, especially in the first-half, I feel we deserved more.

"The players were fantastic and it was a joy to watch at times. The students are a good side and have been scoring a lot lately so to keep them quiet for much of the game was pleasing.

"We created more chances today than in our last couple of games and we certainly need to improve in this aspect of our play.

"We have a tough game next week against Plymstock United away on Saturday before our Boxing Day home clash with Axminster Town (11am kick-off).

"Why not come down and support the lads."

Axminster Reserves' promotion hopes hit

REPORTS

Chumleigh 5 Axminster Res 0

Devon & Exeter division four

ON a day they will want to quickly forget Axminster Town Reserves came up against a Chumleigh side that Tigers' manager Alan Beer considered to be the best team his charges have encountered so far this season.

On a pitch that was only just playable the visitors were outrun by a younger, fitter team.

Axminster started the game brightly and squandered a chance in the second minute, but, in their first attack the Chumleigh winger sent over a cross which floated over the visiting 'keepers' head and into the net.

By the 17th minute Axminster were three down and were being overrun by a better team.

Some changes were made to the shape and Axminster held their hosts at bay until the 25th minute, when they scored their fourth and that was how it stayed until half-time.

Chumleigh only scored one more goal in the second-half, but the margin should have been many more.

Axminster remain second in division four but if they cannot field a regular team, it is only a matter of time before they lose any chance of promotion.

ROUND-UP

ALTOGETHER 40 Fresha Devon & Exeter League and cup ties were hit by the weather, but that did not stop SAMPFORD PEVERELL coming up with the result of the day as they wrecked the 100 per cent record of Division Five leaders CHERITON FITZPAINE.

Sampford won 3-2 with Jack Bridgman scoring twice including a decisive penalty, after Kris Roper had opened their account.

Cheriton with nine wins under their belt responded through James White and Dean Pidgeon but it was not their day.

Premier Division leaders HATHERLEIGH TOWN came through what they felt was one of their hardest tests winning 3-0 at BEER ALBION. Two goal Luke Reynolds and Greg Mitchell scored the goals.

The only other game to survive in the top flight was at HEAVITREE SOCIAL UNITED where a strong WILLAND ROVERS RESERVES drew 3-3. Heavitree were 3-1 down at the break, but came back well in the second half for a point. Ben Murby, Sam Morrow and substitute Niall Powell scored the home goals.

ALPHINGTON RESERVES came up with the top result in Division One as they won 2-1 at WITHERIDGE RESERVES. The Alphas duly avenged a 5-0 defeat from last week, and manager Darren Dack was elated. Ryan Moody had both Alphington goals, Jason Manley converting a penalty for Withy.

WELLINGTON TOWN RESERVES beat bottom of the table COLYTON 3-0 with goals from Jack Bryant, Nick Bull and Luke Bryant, a victory they badly needed.

EAST BUDLEIGH were held 1-1 by TIPTON ST JOHN who are still seeking their first win. Jack Howarth was the Budleigh scorer.

In Division Town BEACON KNIGHTS added to their nine goals of last week with a magnificent 5-1 win at second place BICKLEIGH. Chris Down with a brace, Danny Holman, Tim Leveridge and Tom Burridge scored for the Knights.

DAWLISH UNITED beat EXETER CIVIL SERVICE to keep the pressure on the top three, and HALWILL are now in the reckoning after they put WESTEXE ROVERS to the sword 5-1. Simon James with four goals and Johnny Knight were Halwill's scorers.

ladies football

Seaton 6 Budleigh Robins 0

AFTER two and a half seasons of trying Seaton Town Ladies finally managed to keep a clean sheet.

To go with that The Greens scored six very good goals, and goalkeeper Michelle Jeans saved a penalty in the last minute to round-off a great day and a complete team performance.

Cheryl Robson (2), Jimima Coleman (2), Lara Spiers and the superb Tara Arnott waded in with the goals in the victory that is sure to give the team a big lift going into next year when hopefully more wins will follow. SEATON SQUAD: Jeans, Burridge, Perrin, Berry, Coalter, Campbell, Spiers, Lamprill, Spiers, Arnott, Coleman, Llewellyn, Hanham.

ALL the evening games reported this week were in Division 2; West Hill won 5-3 and drew at Sidford to move to the top place ahead of Awliscombe A who won 7-1.

Sidford's point keeps them in third place ahead of Sidbury, whose 6-2 win moves them up to fourth.

In the afternoon league Colyton won 5-3 away and gained a third place to fourth.

In the third division the top two teams met at Sidbury, the shared points leaving Chard B in the top spot.

golf round-up

Festive fun down the fairways

AXE CLIFF

with Janet Dack

SENIOR CLUB

THE seniors returned to winter league action last Friday with the fifth round matches.

The bitter north easterly wind made the going tough but did not appear to trouble the ultimate winners Chris Walker & Nick Povey who finished way out in front with 36 points.

Two teams shared second place with 32 points, Dave Bruce & Bob Berry and Sid Pember & Neil Moorcraft.

There were two 2s both by Rob Heard at the par three 7th and 11th. Heard also putted for a 2, albeit from distance, at the par 4, 284 yard 6th - an excellent drive in any conditions.

CHRISTMAS FROLIC

THE Ladies of Axe Cliff enjoyed their annual Christmas Frolic with members of the Seniors section recently.

On a cold but sunny morning the drawn pairings took to the fairways of the cliff top course to play in the 15 hole "Frolic".

By the amount of noise in the clubhouse there was a great deal of "frollicking" and banter with some really good golf as a side issue.

During the meal after the competition there were the usual comments of balls "lipping out", "lucky chips in" and plenty of "ifs, buts and maybes."

But overall was the feeling was that a good time had been had by all and it was a suitable way to begin the festive celebrations.

The winners were Glenda Board & Dave Bruce with 32 points who beat their playing partners Liz Wheeldon & lain Bain on countback.

The new lady captain, Sandra Walker and her partner, Seniors' captain Rob Grove, had to be content with third place but it was the occasion which really won the day.

TUESDAY MIXED

A LARGE field played in this week's Tuesday Mixed Christmas 'Bring & Win' Competition (format Greensome Stableford).

After all the recent wet weather members were pleased to be striding the fairways and, although we played on temporary greens, the course was in good condition thanks to the green staff.

The prize table looked very festive and everyone was a winner.

A vote of thanks was given by Max Pipe to Jennifer and Richard Pyle who have overseen the competitions during the year.

LADIES SECTION

THE Ladies Section played a Surprise Stableford on Saturday where all the score cards were faced downwards on the table and picked up in groups of three.

The Stableford scores of the groups were added together to give the results as follows: 1st Carol Cole, Jan Portlock & Janet Hughes with 96 points; 2nd Majans Stroud, Gill Johnson & Ann Trayling with 93 points; 3rd Diana Gee, Julie Eyes & Maureen McIlveen with 92 points.

This was a fun game where bottom score could be top and vice versa and was ideal for a really cold and frosty morning!

Chiefs win bragging rights in derby

WITH WILL MOWBRAY

Sidmouth 1st 18 v Cullompton 1st 17

THE Chiefs produced a titanic defensive performance to secure a much-needed win in this hard-fought local derby. The four points gained sees them end the year in seventh place.

Drizzly rain on a slippery surface made life difficult for both teams but, despite the conditions, they produced an entertaining and exciting game of rugby in front of a good crowd.

The visitors started strongly with their forwards picking and driving the ball through several phases to take play into the Sidmouth 22, where they were soon rewarded with a penalty kicked by the outside centre.

Cullompton were soon back on the attack but, when the Chiefs turned over possession on their 22, Jason Luff burst up field before kicking ahead to put his side on the attack. A promising handling move failed to break down the defence until Jack Pyne picked up from the base of a ruck and found a gap to sprint over by the posts. Tom Whelan added the conversion.

Cullompton kicked a second penalty before Pyne went over for a second try. The forwards drove a lineout maul to line where the powerful flanker picked up and dived over. The conversion attempt drifted just wide.

Cullompton dominated much of the second quarter but could not find a way through or around the well-organised Sidmouth defence. Eventually they had to be content with a third penalty, which was immediately cancelled out by a long range effort by Tom Whelan to make the half-time score 15-9.

Seven minutes into the second half Sidmouth were reduced to 14 men when Glenn Channing was yellow carded for handling in a ruck near his own line. The resulting penalty was converted to narrow the gap to three points.

Cullompton used the extra man to good effect to build up pressure in the Sidmouth 22. The scrum half was held up over the line and the Chiefs pack held firm at the resulting scrum. However, a few minutes later the pressure told when the full-back squeezed in at the corner on the end of a good handling move to put his side in front going into the final quarter. The try was unconverted.

A well-placed kick by James Powell gained his side a rare attacking position. Under pressure Cullompton conceded a penalty and Tom Whelan kicked his side into a one pint lead.

Much of the remaining time was spent in the Sidmouth half but they kept their defensive shape and intensity until the end, a try-saving tackle by James Perry being particularly memorable. Most importantly, they kept their discipline not to concede any kickable penalties.

Sidmouth Preview

THE Chiefs now have a three week break from league rugby. The next game is the annual Boxing Day fixture against the President's XV. The invitation team promises to be a strong one and the kick off at the Blackmore is at 2.30pm. Meanwhile, on Saturday the Quins entertain Exeter Saracens 2nds at the Blackmore, kick off 2.30pm.

Hornets Last Sting

Honiton U16s 14 - 29 Newquay U16s

THE long awaited match planned against Cornwall's finest, The Newquay Hornets. It was to be a very wet and overcast day to play, and the pitch just about held up following recent downpours.

The match was started with Honiton taking the kick down the slope. Newquay were quick off the mark as the ball was taken wide and kicked to the corner, where a simple sprint to the line meant they had their name on the first try of the match.

The Lacemen were quick to respond and following some good set play, they let Newquay know the game wasn't going to be one-way traffic. Some quick off-loading saw the ball span out and the game line broken.

The Lacemen put their equalising score on the board following a great run down the wing from Jordon Roe Lavery. Harry Wright took the conversion and split the posts to take the Lacemen two points to the good.

With the game unfolding defence and attack were on equal par and both teams played some outstanding rugby. It was to be Honiton who found the line again as Richy Webber took a loose ball in and crashed through the Newquay defence.

Harry Wright's boot was again on target and Honiton took a well-deserved lead 14-5. It was however shortlived as Newquay threatened the whitewash with some good attacking play.

Unfortunately this constant bombardment was soon rewarded and Honiton let in a second try and conversion, Honiton led 14-12 going into the break.

The Lacemen now had the daunting task of playing up a very wet and sticky pitch. Newquay were able to use the slope to their advantage and following some good defensive work from both teams the deadlock was eventually broken and the whitewash was again crossed by the Hornets.

This score was to be the disappointing demise of the Lacemen as tired bodies started to slow up. The unforgiving slope gave good advantage and momentum for the Hornets forwards who were able to use driving mauls with little resistance from the hosts heavy boots.

Driving the homeside, the visitors found the gap they needed and again crossed to put the score 10 points in front. Honiton dug deep, and had the Hornets defence on their toes for long periods of play, but with territory hard to gain, the guests were able to capitalise on a few mistakes and closed the game with the final nail in the coffin by crossing to add a further five points.

The final score ending 29-14. Honiton should and can hold their heads very high. The Hornets reputation is still very much intact "as The Lacemens" who will look forward to the return match later in the season. Hopefully the weather will be a little more favourable for both sides.

Man-Of-The-Match goes to Usamah Elmaghdhy for sterling defence throughout the match.

Round-up

HONITON remain bottom of the Tibute western league with a 20-3 loss against fellow relegation rivals Tavistock. This result leaves Honiton 10 points adrift of Tavistock who are just one place ahead of Honiton, in 13th.

SIDMOUTH SECONDS put up a good fight against title challengers Cullompton seconds. The result was convincing in the end though as Cullompton ran out 10-25 winners.

Dart 3rds 0

Honiton Hornets 8

HONITON travelled to Totnes for the final game of the first-half of the season.

With ISCA equal on points in the league, Honiton needed to make the most of their game in hand.

Honiton were a little slow to settle and Dart took control of midfield but this didn't last long as Amy Phillips took the ball into the top of the circle and scored with an strong first time strike.

With the majority of the pressure now in the Dart circle Lucy Le Cocq scored a similar goal to take the visitors two in front.

Honiton had a number of further chances throughout the first-half and Laura Frank scored twice to give to extend the lead to 4-0 at half-time.

In the second half Phillips scored two cracking goals from short corner opportunities slotting the ball past the home goalkeeper with fast, accurate strikes.

Dart had some chances on the second half to score, the most notable of these was saved on the line by Vicky Morris after goalkeeper Sue Stone stopped the initial strike.

Two further goals came in the closing minutes. The first from Sophie George who received a well placed pass into the circle from Becky Hammett and beat the 'keeper with a first-time strike.

Jean Herniman rounding off the scoring after good work from Hammett and George.

Honiton have played some great hockey in the first half of this season with some determined defence and excellent team play.

This week was much the same with a well deserved result to keep them at the top of the table.

Player-of-the-Match this week was Amy Phillips.

OWING to icy weather at Honiton the courts were deemed not to be safe and only two first division games at Colyton took place.

OPG moved up into second place thanks to their 40-22 win over the Met Office, for whom Sophie Littlejohn had a fine game. Harriet Eaton was the OPG star.

Flamingos maintained their 100 per cent record with a 40-12 win over Tip Top Trees who are still looking for their first point of the season.

Flamingos had Karen Hall in fine shooting form and half way were 23-8 up and although Molly Simpson did well for 3Ts they couldn't get going.

Narrow win takes Tigers top spot Welcome point for Vikings

A 1-0 win at lowly Alphington was enough to take Axminster Town to the top of the South-west peninsula League division one (east).

At the other end of the table there was good news too from Sidmouth Town who ended a five-game losing trot with a 1-1 draw at home against the Exeter University students.

The Vikings do however remain seven points adrift at the foot of the table.

Axminster entertain Budleigh Salterton, who were surprisingly thrashed 5-1 at home by Appledore, in a top versus second clash at Sector lane on Saturday. Meanwhile Sidmouth head off to face fellow strugglers Plymstock United.

minutes to earn an impressive point after a 2-2 draw at title-chasing Wingham United.

It was a good day too for Millwey Reserves who booked a place in the Bill Bailey cup quarter-finals after a 6-3 extra-time win over Ilminster Town A at Harry's Field.

There are no Perry Street League fixtures on Saturday.

There were a number of postponed games in the Devon & Exeter League. Beer Albion managed to play but may have wished they hadn't as they went down 3-0 at home against premier division leaders and title favourites Hatherleigh Town up at Furzebrake.

The Fishermen travel to second-placed Feniton on Saturday while midtable Seaton Town return to action with the visit of struggling Clyst Valley.

In Division one, bottom-of-the-table Colyton were beaten 2-0 on their long rip north against Wellington Town Reserves.

The Tanners travel to current leaders Chard Town Reserves while Sidbury United whose scheduled promotion clash with Tiverton Town Reserves was washed out will hope for better when the teams try again in the reverse fixture at the weekend.

The region's trio of division two sides were all rained off.

Next up for Honiton Town is a visit by Dawlish United while Colaton Raleigh and Sidmouth Town Reserves are both on the Road with Raleigh at Beacon Knight and the Vikings heading off to Chagford.
